Profil Vanessa Medina

Vanessa is a senior associate in our Global Project Disputes Practice. Vanessa trained and qualified as an English solicitor in London and worked in the Engineering, Procurement and Construction team.

Vanessa is also a member of the international Major Projects practice, with experience advising in connection with complex, international construction, engineering, oil and gas and real estate development contracts, as well as advising in connection with construction disputes, arbitration and global investigations.

She supports all other practice groups (including Restructuring and Insolvency, Project Finance, Real Estate and M&A) by providing specialist construction advice on high-value, complex projects throughout Europe, CIS, the Middle East, and Asia.

Vanessa also has in-house legal experience following secondments to two major construction clients.
